Authority to Buy UN Bonds Given JFK

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has given President Kennedy's plea for authority to extend $100 million in aid to the financially troubled United Nations.

Through a long legislative day Thursday a coalition of Democrats and Republicans beat back efforts to limit the President's authority. What emerged for consideration by the House was a compromise measure much to the administration's liking. Passed 70 to 22, it would permit Kennedy to either lend the United Nations the money on his own terms or buy U.N. bonds bearing 2 per cent interest, repayable over 25 years.

Attached is the condition that all U.S. loans above $25 million must be matched by bond purchases by other U.N. member-nations. This isn't likely to tie Kennedy's hands. Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., floor manager for the bill, said other nations already have agreed to buy more than $52-million worth.

A ringing declaration by Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois that "I have not lost my faith in John Fitzgerald Kennedy" highlighted the legislative struggle and pointed up the partisan support for the measure.

Dirksen had sponsored the compromise jointly with the Senate Democratic leader, Mike Mansfield of Montana.

While the proposal may be in for rougher going in the House, Senate Democratic and Republican leaders were confident the big margin piled up for it in the Senate would help turn the tide on the other side of the Capitol.

Kennedy originally asked the straight-out authority to buy half of the $200-million bond issue the United Nations is floating to meet costs of peace-keeping operations in the Congo and the Middle East. The compromise was worked out by the White House in negotiations with Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., who originally insisted on a $100-million loan that would be repayable in 3 years and carry the going government borrowing rate of a little over 3 per cent.

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, offered the short-term loan proposal as a substitute Thursday night, and it was triumphantly rejected, 72 to 20. The bill drew the support of 22 Republicans and 48 Democrats.

It was Dirksen, in a fighting, emotional speech, who made the final stand against the Hickenlooper substitute.

Dirksen said he was quite willing to agree that many things done by and in the United Nations had displeased him.

"But," the Republican leader continued, "I do not want to see this effort that began 17 years ago falter. I am not going to charge my conscience with a course of action that would go contrary to the foundation of the United Nations."

Newsboy Leaves Scholarships

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — A man who sold newspapers on downtown streets for 20 years, and saved most of his income, has set up a scholarship fund for deserving youngsters.

A will by the late John W. (Capt.) Smith, probated Thursday, estimated his estate at $1,800 cash and $15,000 in bonds.

Most of the bonds go to his son, daughter and others. The remainder goes to the Eastminister Presbyterian Church for scholarships for boys and girls whom the church may consider worthy.

Smith died March 16.

Testifies Army Trained About Red Tactics

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Army generals testified today that all U.S. soldiers and officers now undergo special training and indoctrination on Communist tactics.

The aim, the generals said, is to avoid a situation like that during the Korean War when some American prisoners collaborated with their Communist captors.

Gen. Barksdale Hamlett, vice chief of staff, said "the soldiers are not being trained to become prisoners of war, but rather what their behavior should be if they unfortunately become prisoners."

Maj. Gen. Alva R. Fitch, assistant chief of staff for intelligence, said special training was provided for all Army personnel stationed overseas where Communist infiltration and espionage are likely.

The testimony of the generals was prepared for delivery to a special Senate Armed Services subcommittee investigating complaints that anti-Communist activities of military officers were being reported as a low-key sequel to two days of emotion-charged testimony by former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker who said he was "framed in a den of iniquity" by his anticommunist activities as a division commander in Germany.

Walker named Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Walt Whitman Rostow, a close adviser to President Kennedy, as two top figures in the den but did not accuse them directly of doing any framing.

Walker, now running for the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas, quit the Army after being removed from his command and admonished on the ground that he had tried to influence soldier votes in the 1960 election and had labeled as pinks or Communists such Americans as former President Harry S. Truman and Eleanor Roosevelt.

Throughout his two days on the committee stand, Walker played variations on one central theme: That there is a "sell-out" plot in high places to push a soft-on-Communism policy, and that those who oppose it are pilloried.

Pressed near the end of his testimony.

Hope Man to Enter State
Race Today

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Kelly Bryant, executive secretary of the Arkansas Sheriffs Association, indicated Thursday he would file today as a candidate for secretary of state.

Bryant's announcement came shortly after State Rep. Milton Willis of Van Buren filed Thursday for the post.

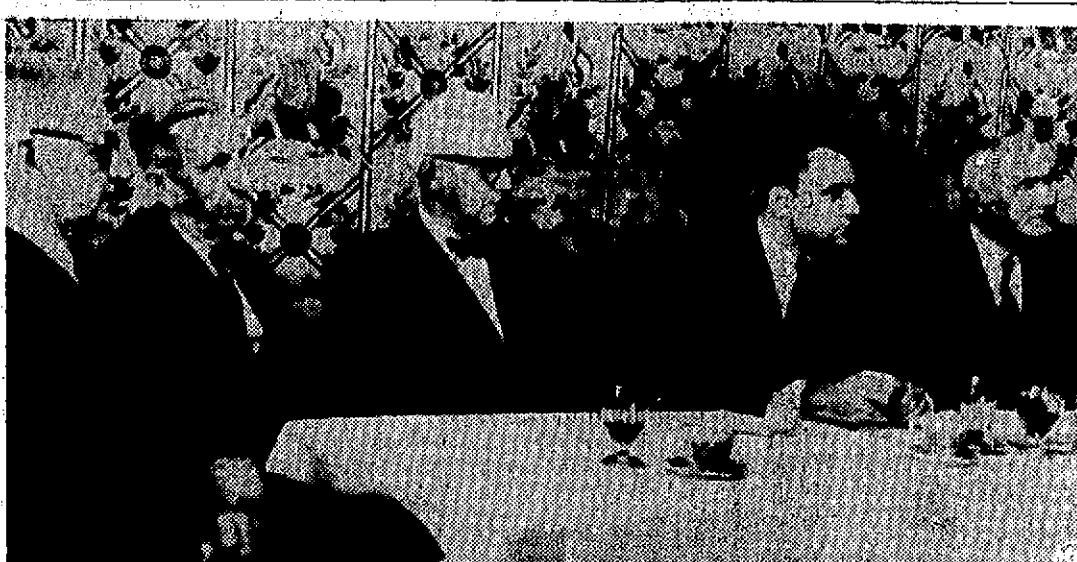

Willis said he would resign May 1 as general manager of the Van Buren Press Argus to devote full time to his campaign.

The 48-year-old Crawford County representative has never sought state office before. He is married and has one son, Jay, 21, a senior at the University of Arkansas.

Secretary of State Nancy Hall was appointed to the position after the death of her husband, C. G. Hall, and cannot succeed herself. She has filed for treasurer.

Arnold Sikes, executive secretary to Gov. Orval E. Faubus and previously considered a strong contender for the secretary of state job, said Tuesday he wouldn't run for it.

Treasurer L. A. Clayton, another appointee ineligible to succeed himself, is actively considering making the race, along with Carroll Durham, 51, a Wynne funeral home operator, who commented, "I have been running without announcing for the past two or three months."

AP&L Wants to Extend Lines

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Power & Light Co. told the Public Service Commission Thursday it needs to build a 13.8 kilovolt power line across the St. Francis River to replace one now on the Highway 60 bridge.

The commission held a hearing Thursday on the firm's request for authority to build the line about 220 feet upstream from the bridge.

The commission took the matter under advisement. There was no opposition to the request.

Rain Splashes Eastern Half of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain splashed wide sections in the eastern half of the nation today as milder weather spread across most areas.

Showers and snow dampened the northeastern and west central Plains, with strong winds in some areas. The major wet belt covered the southern and central Great Lakes region, the Ohio Valley and from the southern Plains eastward to the Appalachians. Heaviest rain were in the lower Mississippi Valley, with more than one inch in a six-hour period in Jackson and McComb, Miss.

Thunderstorms rumbled across Louisiana and Mississippi and headed into Alabama, with showers indicated in Florida. Fog was reported along the central and extreme southern Pacific Coast and in some Midwest areas.

As temperatures moderated to near seasonal levels in most places, the only below-freezing marks were reported in a few spots in the North Atlantic states and in the Rockies.

Early morning readings ranged from 80 in Blythe, Calif., to 28 in Lebanon, N.H.

Boost Pine Bluff Man for Governor

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — State Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff issued a statement today boosting Louis Ramsey Jr. of Pine Bluff as a possible candidate for governor.

"His name already has been discussed favorably in some quarters here," Nelson said, "in our capital city and in other areas of the state."

Ramsey, an attorney, is a former president of the Arkansas Bar Association and a former president of the University of Arkansas Alumni Association.

McClellan's Opinion Has Not Changed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said today testimony by Douglas Aircraft Co. officials has not shaken his belief that it and Western Electric collected big profits from the government on work done by other firms.

Western Electric was the prime contractor, Douglas its chief subcontractor, in developing the Nike missile system that now rings strategic target areas all over the United States.

In two days of testimony before McClellan's Senate Investigations Subcommittee, Douglas officials bitterly assailed subcommittee staff testimony that the company received $45.58 million profits on Nike contracts totaling $288.66 million. Subcommittees aides said 82.8 per cent of the work was done by subcontractors hired by Douglas.

Donald W. Douglas Jr., president of the aircraft company, said Douglas' profits on all Nike work was $29.8 million. McClellan told a reporter that unless the Douglas people come up with alternative figures and can substantiate them, "I'll regard our staff's figures as accurate."

Small Welfare Hike Cost $288,708

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A $5 welfare increase which went into effect April 1 swelled the state's welfare payroll for the month by $288,708, Gov. Orval E. Faubus reported today.

The Welfare Department paid out $3,034,381 to 4,443 recipients in April. It paid $2,745,673 to 64,486 persons in March.

Faubus released copies of a report prepared by Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams.

The report showed that the average welfare payment to persons who do not receive any social security benefits was $58.15 a month. This was an increase from an April average of about $54.

Adams said the 11,754 persons who receive both welfare and social security got an average welfare grant of $21.80 and an average social security check of $40.57 for an average total of $62.37.

The April breakdown shows $2,663,424 paid to 35,051 persons in old age assistance, $106,427 to 1,947 blind persons, $284,530 to 7,444 disabled persons.

Flooded Cotton Land Bill Gets Past House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House passed Thursday and sent to the Senate a bill which would permit cotton farmers whose fields are flooded out this year to transfer their cotton acreage allotments to other nearby fields.

The bill, by Rep. Frank Smith, D-Miss., would extend a law which was enacted last year to aid cotton farmers in similar circumstances.

Under the law, a farmer whose field is flooded out may plant his allotted cotton acreage elsewhere in the same county or in an adjoining county.

The Agriculture Department has reported that in 1961 about 40,000 acres of cotton allotments were so transferred.

The House Agriculture Committee, in reporting the bill, said flood conditions already have occurred this year in Kentucky and Tennessee and normally occur in Arkansas, Missouri, Mississippi and other southern states.

Tourists to Parks Spent $457 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Out-of-state travelers spent an estimated $457 million in Arkansas last year, the state Publicity and Parks Commission reported today.

The report said 15.4 million travelers spent almost $160 million of the total with the state's 7,961 businesses devoted to serving travelers.

Eighty-six per cent of the travelers came by private vehicle, eight per cent by bus, four per cent by train and two per cent by air.

Sixty per cent of the visitors came from neighboring states with Texas leading at 22 per cent.

The report shows 28 per cent came to visit relatives and friends, 24 per cent were on their way to another state, 22 per cent were sightseeing and 22 per cent were on business.

The report showed this breakdown on how the tourist dollar was spent: 29 cents for food and drink, 24 cents for automobile service, 19 cents for lodging, 11 cents for amusement and 17 cents for miscellaneous items, such as souvenirs.

Thirty-six per cent of the travelers came because they enjoyed a previous visit to Arkansas and 34 per cent came at the suggestion of friends, the report shows.

Auditor Jim Jones Files for 4th Term

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Auditor Jimmie Jones filed for reelection today, ending speculation that he might run for governor or secretary of state.

Jones said he had received considerable urging to run for some other office but he made up his mind Thursday to "try to stay where I am."

"Maybe four years from now I will seek your support for governor," he said in a statement.

Jones, 42, seeks a fourth term as auditor. He defeated four opponents for the job in 1956 and was reelected without opposition in 1958 and 1960.

"I hope there is no opposition this time," he said.

Jones served two years as an appointed land commissioner in 1955-56. Before that, he was Columbia County tax collector for Jones, 42, seeks a fourth term as auditor. He defeated four opponents for the job in 1956 and was reelected without opposition in 1958 and 1960.

"I hope there is no opposition this time," he said.

Jones served two years as an appointed land commissioner in 1955-56. Before that, he was Columbia County tax collector for four years.

Before entering politics, Jones worked as announcer and commercial manager for radio station KVMA at Magnolia and as an announcer for Station KAMD at Camden.

10,171 Placed in Non-Agri Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Employment Security Division placed 10,171 persons in non-agriculture jobs last month, establishing a 17-year high for March job placements, the ESD reported today.

The ESD filled 6,240 jobs in March, 1961. The number of workers in manufacturing increased 29.2 per cent over the February level, while in construction it rose 28.6 per cent and in trades, 28.3 per cent.

Thinks Berlin Situation Is Some Better

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American ambassador to Moscow, Llewellyn Thompson, said of the Berlin situation today that the news of the last few days seems to be encouraging.

Thompson talked with reporters after a half-hour conference with President Kennedy. He will return next week to Moscow, where he has been engaging in periodic conferences on the Berlin situation with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Thompson was reluctant to talk to newsmen at all, because of the delicacy of the Berlin conferences. He went into no detail about what news had appeared encouraging in recent days.

For one thing, however, the Soviets have held off harassing military flights in the air corridors to Berlin for a week now. Restrictions clamped on movements of military liaison teams on either side of the Berlin wall have been lifted.

To a question whether he expects to find out in Moscow just how encouraging the news may be, Thompson smiled and replied: "Well, I would hope so."

He was asked whether he thinks there is reason for optimism.

"I don't know that I would like to characterize it," the ambassador said. "I think I'd better leave it at that."

He had nothing to say about his talks with the President.

Hopeful That Rockefeller Will Run

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Henry Britt, the Hot Springs attorney who ran for governor on the Republican ticket in 1960, said today that he would be glad to be a candidate again this year, but that he hopes Winthrop Rockefeller will consider running.

Britt said he had to leave today for urgent business in Dallas, and would not be able to attend a giant GOP rally in Fayetteville tonight in which national committee chairman William E. Miller will speak.

But he said the fact that he wouldn't attend the meeting does not indicate a rift between him and the party or him and Rockefeller, the state's GOP national committeeman.

"I don't know how these rumors (of a rift) got started," he said in an interview. "Winthrop and I are good friends and I hope we remain so. I have no controversy with him. We're like every family, we have our differences, but we differ to be constructive and we bring our differences together in a constructive way."

Britt said several state employees had visited him to talk politics, but he wouldn't give any names. "I've heard all kinds of stories," he said, "even some that I should run as a Democrat, but I couldn't quite do that."

Britt said he would run again for governor as a Republican "under certain conditions."

Asked if he thought Rockefeller would run, he said, "I certainly hope he will consider it."

Britt said he thought Republican chances of electing a governor "could be awfully good this year, depending on the candidate and the opposition, and the presentation of a program."

"I'm sorry Faubus is not a candidate," he said. "I prefer him as an opponent if I were going to get in. He helps get us support."

The Republicans claimed in 1960 that a large portion of their votes came from anti-Faubus Democrats.

Britt said "the best thing that ever happened to me businesswise was being the Republican candidate for governor in 1960, and working at it," he said. "Except for Francis Cherry, I did better as an opponent of Orval's than any other man," Britt added.

Russia Pushes Ahead With Disarming Plan

By PATRICK MASSEY

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union sought today to push ahead with its own draft disarmament treaty despite Western objections that major matters of principle must be settled first.

The issue arose as the 17-nation disarmament conference discussed the Soviet draft and Part I of an American draft. It foreshadowed an even greater clash building up over rival ideas concerning priorities in actual arms cut measures.

British Delegate Joseph Godber tried to shunt discussion of both drafts into a committee, which he said should start preparing a joint agreement, beginning with points of agreement in both documents. The listed a dozen points of harmony in the drafts, all mostly statements of general principle and ultimate objective.

He said the full conference then should be charged with examining substantive issues—details of how major disarmament steps should be carried out and which should have priority.

Soviet Delegate Valerian Zorin reiterated Soviet insistence that the conference immediately begin discussing his draft treaty, article by article. He said substantive issues would automatically come up for examination as the debate went on.

U.S. Delegate Arthur H. Dean again asserted that major disagreements must be tackled before line-by-line debate on a treaty.

Cuba Holding 7 Treasure Hunters

By GEORGE ARFELD

HAVANA (AP) — Cuban authorities reported today seven North American citizens—and described as "apparently"—cromen—have been arrested on the northern coast of Oriente Province.

Communiqué appearing in Havana newspapers said the men were picked up at 5 a.m. Thursday and were "detained."

"Apparently they were frogmen," the communiqué said. "Authorities are investigating to determine what their presence in our territory is due to."

There was speculation in Miami that the men were missing treasure hunters who sailed from Pompano Beach, Fla.

The Coast Guard at Miami issued an alert Thursday night for vessels to report any sighting of the motorboat Pisces, overdue at Jamaica on a treasure hunting cruise of seven skin divers.

Coast Guard search and rescue headquarters said that skipper Gordon S. Patton and his mates normally would cruise between eastern Cuba (Oriente Province) and the Dominican Republic on a voyage in their 45-foot boat to Jamaica.

The Coast Guard explained that the route, called the Windward Passage, would allow small craft to island-hop among the Bahamas. The route is shorter than the alternate passage around western Cuba.

Patton and his group had planned to do skin diving in exploring the Caribbean Sea floor for old shipwrecks.

With Patton on the Pisces when it left Florida Saturday were Fred Dixon Jr., Washington, D.C., and five other men whose names were not learned immediately.

Beatnik Neighbors Frustrating Farmers

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: Our problem is country beatniks. We farmers take pride in the crossroads village we call home — that is, all but the country beatniks do. Our barns are a pretty red, our houses shining white and our shade trees pruned.

We farmers' wives — all but one — grow cheerful, old-fashioned flowers in our front yards. Everything smiles in our community, leastwise all but one farm smile.

We would have got first prize as a model community had it not been for these country beatniks we had the bad luck to draw as neighbors. They're a young couple in the early twenties; she is from New York — traveled with that beatnik Greenwich Village crowd, went to college and has funny ideas about a back-to-the-land movement. Guess that's why she married the dolt she calls husband.

He comes from a nice, clean, church-going family but has always been shiftless. The uncle from whom he inherited the farm and my husband's folks grew up together. That uncle was a real worker, kept himself and his farm neat and tidy. But not the nephew and that beatnik wife of his!

Their hair straggles, their faces are unwashed and their clothes dirt-streaked. Their three kids look like dust-bowl young'uns and are wild as baby colts. Without so much as an "Are you home?" the whole family will troop in our house three or four times a week, straight from tending cattle. This can be very embarrassing when we have company.

Yesterday, some friends from the city were here and in trooped our country beatniks reeking to high heaven of the stable. Their clothes smelled so bad our friends left. The beatnik wife, being as how she knows better, could pull her husband up. Instead, he's pulling her down. How can we make them see themselves as others see them? —Frustrated Farmer's Wife

Dear Frustrated: Beatniks are nothing more or less than maladjusted human beings rebelling at a society which rejects them. Instead of rejecting your beatnik neighbors, take them into camp, barnyard smells and all. Begin with the wife, since she is the more intelligent of the two. Prove by example, rather than talk, that there is a better way of life than hers. Buy some gay spring dress patterns for her children and offer to help make the clothes. Give her seeds and cuttings from your garden. Show her how to plant them. Pass along shortcuts in cooking and housework.

In turn, there are probably things you can learn from her; books you can read and discuss together. Encourage her to bring her husband to the town meetings. In other words, make her and her family feel that they belong to the community.

Dear Helen: If I had read your columns earlier in life, perhaps my marriage could have been saved. I had two lovely children 18 and 20, when I married for the second time. This posed a problem because of the son by this second husband. My teen-agers couldn't stand the sight of the baby or their stepfather although he was kindness itself to them. Not knowing which way to turn, I listened to the kids and divorced.

Now I have met another good man who wants to marry me. I have an excellent position and a home of my own. My children don't think I should exchange this security for an uncertainty. In other words they don't want me to remarry. I'm still young, only 39, and frankly feel the need of love and companionship. This man is eight years younger than I but we have the same tastes and enjoy being together. What would you do? —Upset

Dear Upset: Your children will soon be marrying and starting families of their own. If you don't lead your own life now, you'll be vicariously leading theirs for them. Do what you, not they, think best. Eight years more or less, makes little difference after 30.

Dear Helen: My husband is jealous of our son! He resents my concern for the poor boy and curses him at the slightest provocation, instead of sitting down like a loving parent and talking things over. Result? The boy claims up at sight of him and makes me his confidant.

Our eldest child, a girl, left home because of this same problem. We have another daughter, 12, and my husband has two more daughters in their twenties by a previous marriage. He blamed his ex-wife for the divorce but I'm beginning to think it was his fault.

mony Thursday to name influential figures in the secret control apparatus he said directs such a policy. Walker named Rusk and Rostow, who is now head of the policy planning council in the State Department.

Rusk, at the Capitol for another hearing, dismissed the testimony as not worthy of comment but did tell newsmen "I'm happy to be linked with Mr. Rostow—he is an able and close colleague."

The White House declined comment.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., had asked the Army to outline its current methods of alerting the military and the public to cold war dangers of Communist subversion.

Previous witnesses testified that thousands of U.S. prisoners in Korea weakened under brainwashing and collaborated with the enemy.

"The problems were not limited to lack of knowledge of communism and democratic institutions," Hamlett said. "Deficiencies in moral fiber, faith and discipline, as well as inability to withstand Communist techniques of group disintegration, collaboration, confession and informing were revealed."

"These are some of the areas to which we address ourselves in training."

He said the 25th Division in Hawaii had a "realistic prisoner of war compound" and soldiers were subjected to "treatment similar to that accorded American prisoners of war during the Korean conflict."

Fitch said troops in Europe receive special indoctrination because they "are more exposed to intensive intelligence activity by the Soviet, East German and Polish intelligence services."

Special precautions are taken, Fitch said, against the "possibility of Communist infiltration into the Army."

U. S. Indicts Texan on Fraud Charge

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—A federal grand jury has indicted multimillionaire financier Billie Sol Estes, 37, and three other Texans on charges of plotting a $24-million fraud.

The four were charged in indictments returned Thursday with conspiring to defraud nine finance companies with faked mortgages.

In most cases, security for loans was liquid fertilizer tanks. Prosecutors claim some of the tanks never existed. One of the biggest among Estes' 30 enterprises is a business handling the fertilizer.

Dist. Judges R. E. Thomason received the grand jury's report while sheriff's officers were investigating the unexplained death of George Krutick, 49, an El Paso certified public accountant who had worked for Estes.

A rancher discovered the body of Krutick in his car near Clint, Tex. A hose from the exhaust pipe indicated carbon monoxide fumes had been piped inside the auto.

Dr. Frederick Bornstein, a pathologist, said a preliminary report indicated, however, that the fumes were not the cause of death but that the decomposed condition of the body made it difficult to determine the exact cause of death. He did not set a time of death.

Federal agents arrested Estes at his palatial home in Pecos, Tex., last week. He is free on $100,000 bond.

Also named in the indictments were Superior Manufacturing Co. of Amarillo and three officials of the firm—Harold E. Orr, 31, president; Ruel W. Alexander, 36, secretary-treasurer; and Coleman McSpadden, 45, a director. Each has posted $25,000 bond.

Stafford Picks Up Where He Quit Last Year

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Strong, stingy and successful—that's Bill Stafford, an instant sensation for the New York Yankees last year who has been the world champions' most effective pitcher during the exhibition baseball season.

Making his last pre-season start, the right-hander, 24, became the first member of the Yankees staff to go the distance as he spaced 11 hits—all singles—in a 2-1 victory over Philadelphia at Fort Lauderdale Thursday.

Stafford now has worked 41 innings—most on the club—posted an incredible 1.60 earned run average and, almost as amazing in the day of the home run, has not been touched for a circular grid during the entire exhibition start.

Stafford fashioned a 14.9 record during the 1961 campaign, his first full season in the majors, and compiled the second lowest ERA in the league at 2.68.

The triumph gave the world champs a 17-4 record, leaving them in a tie with St. Louis for the best exhibition mark. The Cardinals nipped Detroit 4-5 at Lakeland, handing the Tigers their eighth consecutive loss.

In other games, Minnesota defeated Baltimore 6-2 at Miami, San Francisco belted Milwaukee 4-2 at Phoenix, the Chicago White Sox shut out Cincinnati 5-0 at Savannah, the Los Angeles Dodgers clipped Cleveland 4-2 at Tucson, Houston defeated Los Angeles Angels 3-2 at San Antonio and Kansas City edged the New York Mets 6-5 at St. Petersburg.

The Yankees scored their runs as Joe Pepitone and Tom Tresh came across while the Phils were completing double plays. The Cards went ahead on Stan Musial's first spring homer, fell behind when Norm Cash hit one for the Tigers, then won it when Julio Garay drove in two runs in a three-run eighth inning uprising.

Home runs by rookies Bernie Allen and Dick Rollins and another by Zoilo Versalles gave the Twins' Don Lee the runs he needed as he went the distance to beat the Orioles with an eight-hitter. Rookie Gaylord Perry blanked the Braves for eight innings while the Giants built a commanding lead with a 13-hit attack, including a two-run homer by Willie McCovey.

A grand slam homer by Al Smith and Charley Smith's solo shot won it for the White Sox. Juan Pizarro checked the Reds on five hits in seven innings before Herb Score completed the job in hitless fashion. The Dodgers tallied three in the eighth against the Indians' newly acquired Pedro Ramos with John Roseboro knocking in the winner on a foul fly out.

Roman Mejias accounted for the Colts' first run with a run-producing single, then scored the deciding run in the ninth on Jim Pendleton's double. Norm Siebern hit a homer and a triple in an 11-hit attack as the A's built an insurmountable edge behind Art Dit-

Norm Still the Batting Cage Wit

By JERRY GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — The American League batting crown—his first flirtation with fame—hasn't changed Norm Cash.

The Detroit Tigers' first baseman, who hit .361 in 1961, is still a batting cage wit.

He treats baseball as a game—a serious game, but still a game. Life is full of fun, especially in the exhibition games when the pressure of the pennant race is off.

A few weeks ago Cash backed away from a pitch and looped the ball softly along the left field foul line.

It was a sure double. But Cash was laughing so hard at his meek poke he had to slow down and was thrown out at second.

Cash was one of the most questioned and most photographed players in Florida this spring.

"Can you hit .361 again?" "My hat still fits," said Cash in his Texas drawl.

"I can't say I'll hit .361 again. But I feel certain I can be a .300 hitter."

Cash's salary was more than doubled for winning the batting title. He'll receive $29,000 this season.

Batting has become natural for Cash. Fielding remains a chore. Cash went to spring training last year with his manager's promise that the first base was his—as long as he could hold the job. Coach Phil Cavarretta, once a fine fielding first baseman and a batting champion himself, was Cash's personal tutor.

Cavarretta spent hours banging grounders at Cash—and he learned to be a reliable fielder, although he still is unsure at times.

He circled under an infield pop in an intrasquad game one day.

"I've got it," yelled Cash. "I hope."

He caught the ball.

Light Talk Wins Feature by a Head

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Robert Nono guided Jacnet Stabile's Light Talk through tight quarters into a head victory in Thursday's $3,500 Miss Arkansas Purse at Oaklawn Park.

The winner nudged out Marion H. Van Berg's Rose Gem for the victory. Trailing four lengths farther back for show honors was P. F. Adwell's Alirah.

The four-year-old son of Khaled and Flitting Past covered the mile and a sixteenth of fast track in 1:11 2-5 and returned $4.60, $3.20 and $2.80.

The crowd of 8,129 wagered $589,085.

The $5,000 Arkansas Traveler Purse, with eight top sprinters in competition, is today's feature, but the final shaping of the field in Saturday's $25,000 added Arkansas Derby claims a major share of interest.

It still appears that not more than nine of the 38 three-year-olds originally nominated will go post-ward for the 26th running of the derby which climaxes Oaklawn's 43-day meeting.

But the number will not be definitely known until the names are taken from the overnight entry box.

Jockeys already have been assigned to eight of the nine regarded as certain starters. Johnny

Bev will ride Alfredo Stable's Eidolon who looms as the probable favorite for the mile and 70-yard test.

William Carstens will handle Mamelot; Nono, Poland China; apprentice Robert Craig, Prince Dale; Robert Lee Baird, Aeropolis; Eugene Curry, Speedy Nicky; Larry Spraker, Treasury Note; and Ken Griffith, Escadal.

Still without a rider is Touch Bar.

Three of the probable starters worked out over a fast track Thursday with Aeropolis going five-eighths under snug restraint by Baird in the impressive time of :59 3-5.

Poland China covered the same distance in 1:00 2-5 while Speedy Nicky, stablemate of Aeropolis, ran it in 1:03.

Heading the field for today's Arkansas Traveler feature are W. Hal Bishop's speedy pair of Eight Again and Pyrite.

Others entered are Fun and Games, Gay's Pal, Killoqua, Deemster, High Quality and Mr. M.H.

Naming Killoqua for the Traveler Purse indicates that owner John D. Askew of Fayetteville will not name his sprint star for the derby.

Killoqua, a standout in his Oaklawn sprint appearances, has failed in tests over a distance of ground.

Denies CAMPA

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Federal Examiner Herman Tocker has denied a request by the Central Arkansas Milk Producers Association to subpoena the wholesale pricing records of the Borden Co. The request came Thursday during the ninth day of testimony at a hearing here on charges that CAMPA conspired to fix prices and eliminate competition. Testimony in the case was expected to resume today.

Masters May Cure Player of Ailment

By MERCER BAILEY

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Maybe the Masters is the magic medicine that can cure Gary Player of a double-dose of homesickness.

The little South African got off to a tremendous start Thursday in defense of his crown. Returning to the putting style that brought him victory over this taxing, 6,000-yard Augusta National Course last year, he shot a brilliant 5-under par 67 and grabbed a two-stroke lead.

But Player is eager to spend more time in Johannesburg with his wife and two children "and another one on the way."

The personable 26-year-old hasn't won a tournament since his triumph here last year.

Despite his status as defending champion, Player was almost overlooked in pre-tournament talk when the favorites were mentioned. After all, his putting had been awfully sour—and no Masters winner thus far has been able to repeat the next year.

In second place behind Player after a rain-plagued first round was brawny Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N.C., the 1952 U.S. Open champion. He had a 69.

Arnold Palmer, the Pennsylvania now of Miami, and the most feared man in golf today, matched Player's 33 on the back nine and closed with a 70, good for a four-way tie for third spot. Player and Palmer both birdied the 18th, to the delight of a tremendous gallery.

Deadlocked with Palmer at 70 were Mike Souchak of Grossinger, N.Y., another 33 shooter on the back nine; and two Florida dark horses, Dave Ragan of Sun City and Gardner Dickinson of Tequesta.

Gene Littler of Rancho Bernardo, Calif., the current U.S. Open king, headed a quintet of 71 shooters. The others were Don January of Dallas, Billy Maxwell of Las Vegas, Nev., Bob Rosburg of Portland, Ore., and George Bayer of Miami.

Celtics Win Series on Final Basket

BOSTON (AP) — Sam Jones has saved the Boston Celtics against Philadelphia "in the toughest series we ever played."

Jones fired the winning basket over giant Wilt Chamberlain with two seconds left for the 109-107 victory Thursday night.

So drained of energy and emotion were the defending National Basketball Association champions after the final Eastern Division playoff game, they couldn't talk about the title series with Los Angeles opening here Saturday afternoon.

With time running out in the best-of-seven Boston-Philadelphia set, the entire competition suddenly boiled down to Jones vs. Chamberlain.

"We were supposed to kill the clock," said Jones later. "Bob Cousy had told me we had time. But I lost sight of the clock. When I saw Bill Russell make the pick, I figured I had to make my move."

"Chamberlain looked like a mountain coming out after me. As I let the jumper go I thought the ball was going to hit the rim. Guess I gave it some body English."

The U. S. federal government conducted 26 nationwide industrial censuses; next being scheduled for 1964.

75 Candidates to Open Porker Spring Drills

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Coach Frank Broyles, with an eye on the sky and an inexperienced team, opens spring football drills today for the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Broyles will have about 75 candidates turning out to seek the 33 spots open for grabs.

Rain was forecast for today. Upper most in the Arkansas football mentor's mind is finding the hitters in what will probably be his most trying spring workout since his debut here in 1953.

Twelve veterans head today's workout with another eight not participating in the spring drills. These 20 hold all of Arkansas' experience.

But, in spite of it all, Broyles is optimistic.

He says his 1962 team has "less experience than any we've had since my first year here."

"We've got to add, however, He's got more boys with the potential to play."

To compensate for this experience lack, Broyles plans to install a new three-team system patterned after one used successfully by Paul Dietzel before he left Louisiana State.

Two new coaches are on hand to greet this year's squad. Working with the offensive line will be Mervin Johnson, a Missouri import, while Bill Pace handles the defensive secondary. Pace coached under Jack Mitchell at Kansas last year.

Broyles' charges have 24 days of work ahead, provided the weather is cooperative. A 10-day break comes at Easter with the Red-White clash in Little Rock May 12 climaxing the spring workout.
